Notes for ANDREW HENRY MEAD:

Andrew took over "Lealholm" East Rockingham, after the death of his father. In 1918 he married Muriel Pollard, the eldest daughter of George and Ellen Pollard nee Thorpe, of North Dandalup. Like his forbears Andrew continued to graze cattle on the Peel Estate until it was subdivided for Group Settlement. The loss of land was compensated for by the increase in customers for freshly slaughtered beef. Additional land was acquired at Mundijong & around Lake Cooloongup. In the late 1920's he developed a dairy and opened a retail business for his milk at "Greenfields" Beaconsfield. Andrew served on the Rockingham Roads Board from 25.4.1917 to 11 .3 1939. He was made a Justice of the Peace in the 1930's

From Dictionary of Western Australians 1829-1914 Volume 5 The Golden Years 1889-1914. Began farming on the family property "Lealholm", Rockingham, dairying by 1930s. Grew figs for Plaistowe's Jam Factory in Fremantle. Member of Rockingham Road Board 1917-1939.

Muriel had a difficult life as her two sons had haemophilia who required a lot of nursing and care.

After Muriel's death in 1946, Andrew married Muriel's sister Elizabeth, "Bessie". They retired to Hamilton Hill. Andrew died at his daughter Stella's home.

He was born 15-12-1890 in "Lealholm", East Rockingham, WA, and died 24-11-1967 in Mardella, WA.

Notes for MURIEL ELLEN POLLARD:
Muriel had a difficult life as her two sons had haemophilia who required a lot of nursing and care.

After Muriel's death, Andrew married Muriel's sister Bessie. They retired to Hamilton Hill. Andrew died at his daughter Stella's home.

Notes for ANDREW HENRY MEAD:
Andrew took over "Lealholm" East Rockingham, after the death of his father. In 1918 he married Muriel Pollard, the eldest daughter of George and Ellen Pollard nee Thorpe, of North Dandalup. Like his forbears Andrew continued to graze cattle on the Peel Estate until it was subdivided for Group Settlement. The loss of land was compensated for by the increase in customers for freshly slaughtered beef. Additional land was acquired at Mundijong & around Lake Cooloongup. In the late 1920's he developed a dairy and opened a retail business for his milk at "Greenfields" Beaconsfield. Andrew served on the Rockingham Roads Board from 25.4.1917 to 11 .3 1939. He was made a Justice of the Peace in the 1930's

From Dictionary of Western Australians 1829-1914 Volume 5 The Golden Years 1889-1914. Began farming on the family property "Lealholm", Rockingham, dairying by 1930s. Grew figs for Plaistowe's Jam Factory in Fremantle. Member of Rockingham Road Board 1917-1939.

Muriel had a difficult life as her two sons had haemophilia who required a lot of nursing and care.

After Muriel's death in 1946, Andrew married Muriel's sister Elizabeth, " Bessie". They retired to Hamilton Hill. Andrew died at his daughter Stella's home.
