Generation No. 1

1. LEVI² GREEN (*RICHARD*¹) was born Abt. 1828 in ENG, UK, and died 04-09-1914 in "Brookdale", Pinjarra, WA. He married LUCY SARAH SENYARD 20-11-1851 in C/E, Fremantle, WA. She was born Abt. 1833 in London, ENG, UK, and died 25-11-1916 in "Brookdale", Pinjarra, WA.

Notes for LEVI GREEN:

Parkhurst Lad, son of Richard (Surveyor). In 1851 took up land at Murray Estuary, added 10 acres in 1857, naming his small farm "Greensland". Later he held 3,000 acres between Pinjarra and Dwellingup known as "Brookdale". He employed a ticket of leave sawyer in 1864. Lit. C/E Farmer.

Levi and his 2 eldest sons, Levi and Alfred cut the shingles from Sheoak for St. George's Cathedral , Perth. After some of his children had grown and left home Levi and Lucy moved to "Brookdale" on Dwellingup Rd. Pinjarra. Family tradition has this as a 2,000 acre freehold property. In the early 1900's Levi held a 2,000 pastoral lease in the ranges west of Pinjarra. Several Freehold blocks intruded into this. So perhaps Levi followed the usual pattern of buying a small acreage of freehold land and leasing adjoining land. Both Levi and Lucy died at "Brookdale".

He married ELIZABETH MEAD 26-10-1897 in St Andrews, Manjedal, (Mundijong), WA, daughter of HENRY MEAD and LYDIA CHUCK. She was born 04-06-1869 in "Whitby", Serpentine, WA, and died 04-06-1949 in Bayswater, WA.

Notes for RICHARD GREEN:

Richard was the son of Levi Green (b.Eng. d.4.9.1914) and Lucy Sarah Green nee Senyard (b.London c.1833 d.25.11.1918) ("The dictionary of Western Australians" has Lucy's surname as Tenyard.) According to family stories both were orphans. Levi had arrived in W.A. per the "Shepherd" in October 1843. Lucy had arrived on the "Mary" on the 24th.10.1849. Levi worked for Coopers and Lucy for McLarty's, both early settlers of the Murray area. They married in Pinjarra and took up land near the estuary at Mandurah. They called this "Greenlands". The road to the area still bears this name. (1987).

In 1893 or 94 Richard (before his marriage) took up Serpentine Agricultural area Loc.59 (198 acres) on the S.E. corner of the junction of Bunbury and Jarrahdale Roads (C.A.DeBanke had taken up the opposite corner. Both were natural extensions of Henry Mead's holdings along Medulla Brook.) The property came to be known as "Mill View", referring to their view of the Mundijong Board Mill, which had the largest timber yard in W.A. 3/4 mile long. x 1/4 mile wide. In 1898 Richard built the first school at Pinjarra. The contract being for 879 pounds and 16 shillings.

Eliza Mead and Richard Green were the first couple to marry (1897) in St. Andrews Church of England Manjedal (the early name for Mundijong). On the 1904 electoral roll Richard is shown as a Road Contractor. He became the Serpentine Jarrahdale Road's Board foreman. Around 1914 he won a gold watch for the best maintained roads between Perth and Bunbury. "Green's Invention", his Jarrah based steel plated, horse drawn grader may have assisted both quality and quantity of the work he supervised. The grader was used to move gravel from the side of the road to the centre to fill corrugations and pot holes. Cars on the road then acted as "rollers", firming the gravel down the grader was soon adopted by many other Road's Boards to assist in road upkeep. Neither Eliza nor Richard had any formal schooling but both learned to read and write a little.[McPherson.FTW]

Dictionary of Western Australians 1829-1914, Volume 4, Part 1, A-K, The Challenging Years, 1868-1888. Compiled by Rica Erickson. Chd. 4. Farmer, then employed by Mundijong Rd Bd. Wife had been schoolteacher.

From The Serpentine, A History of the Shire of Serpentine - Jarrahdale, by Neil J. Coy. The third son of Pinjarra pioneers Levi and Lucy Green. Richard inherited his father's practical nature in both farming and building. After construction a new school at Pinjarra in 1896 he married Eliza Mead. In later years Richard became a road and bridge building contractor and the first local Road Board foreman. The Greens' eventually built a house on their modest "Millview Estate" in the foothills on Jarrahdale Road. Richard received universal recognition for his enterprising nature, around the time the Great War began, when a city newspaper presented a gold watch to the Road Board for the best roads between Perth and Bunbury. He apparently "invented" a horse-drawn Road Grader fashioned from wide jarrah planks and steel plate, offset at an angle to dispose unwanted rubble onto the road verge in similar fashion to modern graders. Another advantage of "Richard Green's Invention" was the filling in of potholes and wheel ruts created by horse-drawn vehicles, which were the bane of road maintenance in those days. In later years George Lister used the device on the salt lake mines at Woogiemooltha to form rows of salt for easy loading onto trucks.

Marriage Notes for RICHARD GREEN and ELIZABETH MEAD:

From The Serpentine, A History of the Shire of Serpentine - Jarrahdale, by Neil J. Coy. Richard married Eliza in October 1897, in the first such ceremony performed at St Andrew's Anglican Church. Eliza was "given away" by Harry Anstey, who had probably just appointed Richard as his farm manager.

Vi had seven years of Primary schooling, Sid four. The latter was spread over more years as for a time his teacher was also responsible for another school; Students attended alternate weeks! Violet was an excellent pianist and played for the Mundijong dances before her marriage. She also loved dancing, cooking, cake decorating, sewing, gardening and was a proficient horse rider. Vi's incredible memory was still serving her well in 1987, though she felt it was failing! In 1979 (aged 81) she had been able give me the birth years of Aunts and Uncles and birth dates of brothers and sisters and a large number of nieces.

From their marriage, till 1924, Sid and Vi lived and farmed at Northam, then he worked as a contractor at Mundijong and Bayswater. Sidney was next a fireman for 35 years. He saw action in the 1914-18 War. In 1982, the year of their Diamond wedding anniversary, they retired to Nedlands.
